Judge Parker of Fayette has decided that the recent vote taken in that county on the question of making the turnpikes free was not such a vote as authorizes the issuing of county bonds to pay for roads. The case will go to the Court of Appeals.

On Thursday next, December 26th, Mr. William N. Stockton and Miss Maud E. Kirk will be married at the Grand Hotel, Cincinnati. The bride is the daughter of Mr. James N. Kirk, Vice-President of the State National Bank, and is one of Mason's most beautiful and accomplished young ladies. The groom is a son of the late Colonel J. M. Stockton, and he is deservedly one of the most popular young gentlemen in Maysville. Owing to recent bereavement in the family of the groom the wedding will be a very quiet one. Mr. and Mrs. Stockton will make their home at No. 133 West Second street.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

A Few Words to Those Who Want Pure Goods Only.

A great number of people will not be satisfied with inferior and low-grade goods. This class is invited to call and purchase their Christmas goods at G. W. Geisel's. He has never sold and will not sell adulterated supplies.

A WORD ABOUT CANDY.

Christmas comes but once a year, and for goodness sake don't ruin the pleasure of the little folks—and their health beside—by buying for them impure and cheap John Candles. Pure Candies can't be made for less than the cost of pure sugar. G. W. Geisel's Candies, especially Chocolates, are pure and very fine.

Florida Oranges, Bananas, Malaga Grapes, Nuts and everything fresh and good. In fact, our stock is complete and up to date, and you will be satisfied with both the quality and the price.

Horehound Cough Candy at J. James Wood's.

Browning has a large stock of Ladies' and Misses' heavy fleece-lined, ribbed hose, which he is selling at 10 cents per pair.

When you want goods that are first class call and see us. "Trash we don't keep." Our stock is the most complete in the city, our prices the lowest, quality of goods considered. Call, let us show you our line of Watches; the prices are the lowest ever offered.

AN ORDINANCE

Granting a Telephone Privilege or Franchise to Thomas A. Davis, and Fencing the Conditions of Said Grant.

WHEREAS, At a sale of a telephone privilege or franchise in the city of Maysville on the 10th day of May, 1895, pursuant to resolutions adopted by the Board of Council of said city at its regular meeting in May, 1895, and after due advertisement, as provided by law, Thomas A. Davis bid the sum of $30 for said privilege or franchise, the same being the highest and best bid; now, therefore,

Be it ordained by the Board of Council of the City of Maysville, That a telephone privilege or franchise be, and is hereby, granted to said Thomas A. Davis for the period of twenty years; and that said party be allowed to erect poles upon and string wires along the streets, alleys and other public places of said city of Maysville, the said privilege or franchise to extend to any and all additions made to said city within the time specified, and to do all other work necessary in the construction and operation of a general system of telephone exchange in said city.

Be it further ordained, That all poles erected by said party for the purpose aforesaid shall be straight, barked and painted; those on Second street, between Wall and Limestone streets, shall be not less than thirty-five feet in length, those in other parts of the city not less than twenty-five feet in length.

Be it further ordained, That the said Thomas A. Davis shall put all streets, alleys, pavements and other public places disturbed or torn up by him by the erection of his poles or other work in good order and condition, to the satisfaction of the Committee on Internal Improvements of the Board of Council of the aforesaid city; and the placing and locating of said poles shall be done under the supervision of said committee.

Be it further ordained, That said city of Maysville reserves the right to pass such ordinances as may be proper to regulate the conduct of said party under the privilege or franchise hereby granted; and the said city relinquishes no right to grant similar privileges or franchises to any person or corporation at any time it may deem proper so to do.

Be it further ordained, That the said Thomas A. Davis shall, before entering upon the construction of the works under this privilege or franchise, pay to the Treasurer of said city the sum of $10, and in addition thereto execute and deliver to said city a bond, with approved security, in the sum of $5,000, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the stipulations herein and to save the said city harmless from all loss or damage that it may sustain by reason of the construction or operation of the works aforesaid.

Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall be in effect from and after its passage, approval and publication.
Adopted in Council on the 4th day, 1895.
Attest: WILLIAM H. COX, Mayor.
C. E. BROSER, City Clerk. dec19 21
